

Opening Minds Through the Arts (OMA) is program implemented to support student learning in core academic subjects through the arts. A collaborative team of Teaching Artists, Classroom Teachers, an Arts Integration Specialist, and the Principal work together to creatively serve the educational needs of students. Peter Howell is an OMA Gold school, meaning that all students have access to the OMA program in some way throughout the entirety of their elementary school experience.

Peter Howell's OMA team includes an instrumental duo, an opera team, a dance/movement specialist, wind and string specialists, a visual arts teacher, and a full time AIS who sees all students throughout the year.